From the Preacher

CELEBRATING CHRISTMAS

Eight days from now, we will again celebrate that most amazing mystery of divine condensation—the coming of the Son of God into our human experience, as the Son of Mary. It is the most tender of all Christian holidays. May we observe it with softened hearts, joyful spirits, sincere gratitude, and prayerful praise. Let us pray that the true meaning and message of Christmas may break upon human hearts this year as never before.

I hope you will honor Christ's birth by giving Him a generous love offering to show your thanksgiving for "his unspeakable gift" (2 Corinthians 9:15).

God bless you!
