2018—LESSONS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Joshua 3:4

“...Ye have not passed this way heretofore” depicts the adventure of going into a New Year. Only God knows what 2018 will hold. We will be treading on new ground. We will face some of same challenges the Israelites faced as they entered the Promised Land.

There are three lessons from Joshua 3 that will help us navigate into the uncharted region of 2018.

I. We must rely on God’s _____ (vs. 3-4; 10-15 cf. Ex. 25:22).

GOOD PRAYER: Lord, it's gonna be me and You again today; more You than me, for You know how I am. So, if You don't mind, I'm going to trail along behind You, for I have not been this way before. And I hope that by day's end, when I lay my head on my pillow, that I have not gotten myself into something that will take me the rest of my life to get out of. The only way that could happen is for me to not watch where You're going. And Lord, may I not look up and see that I am here and You are over there! Should that happen, please be patient and let me catch up. Amen!

II. We must rely on God’s _____ (vs. 5, 15-17).

III. We must rely on God’s _____ (v. 7).

SUMMATION: We do not have a “pillar of fire,” or an ark to follow as the Jews did. We have a better guidance system:

- (1) We have the _____ of the Holy Spirit.
- (2) We have the _____ written Word of God.

Perhaps God is calling you to do something in 2018 you have never done before. Trust God to take you where He leads: Take the first step, and God will take care of the rest.

From the Preacher

“GO FORWARD”

“...reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.” —Philippians 3:14

I often hear millennials use the catch phrase “going forward” or “moving forward.” It is a buzz word taken from the corporate world. While it is a relatively new expression, it is not a new concept.

At the Red Sea the children of Israel seemed to be trapped—Mountains on one side, the desert on the other, and the Egyptian army in hot pursuit behind them. Before them was the vast Red Sea. They had no where to turn... but up! God told Moses, “speak unto the children of Israel, that they GO FORWARD” (Ex. 14:15). That would require a step of faith (Heb. 11:29).

The Christian walk should be a forward movement. Onward and upward! While there may be times to “stand still” (Ex. 14:13), we should never retreat or go backwards. There comes a time to get moving and “go forward.”

2018 is now before us! Let’s “go forward” as far as we can on dry ground and trust God to make a way through what seems impossible.
